Dear Defenders, Panel Reps and Defender Panel Administrators:

Since we began making training videos available through fd.org they have been viewed over 1,000 times both by individual attorneys and others, and by groups of attorneys viewing them at training sessions in FDOs. Please let your staff and panel members know that there are now seven new training videos available through fd.org on the topics of sentencing, forensic evidence, and social networking. The titles of the videos are:

Facebook, Myspace, The Joys/Dangers of Internet Social Networks and How to Use Them as a Litigation Tool

Alex Roberts, National Litigation Support Paralegal, Office of Defender Services, Training Branch, Oakland, California

Lou Newberger, Federal Public Defender, Southern District of West Virginia

Fingerprints: Understanding & Challenging Science

Robert Epstein, Assistant Federal Defender, Eastern District of PA

Firearm and Toolmark Identification

Jack Cunha, Cunha and Holcomb Attorneys at Law, Boston, MA

Recidivism, Recidivism, Recidivism: How to Mitigate Your Client's Criminal History

Jane McClellan, Assistant Federal Defender, District of Arizona

Attacking and Understanding DNA

Larry Tipton, Attorney-in-Charge, Norfolk County Office, CPCS

The Fine Print & Not Letting Clients Be Doomed to Sentencing Conditions: Avoiding Courts Imposing Restrictive Conditions During Supervised Release or Probation

Jennifer Gilg - Research & Writing Specialist, District of Nebraska

Defending Against Armed Career Criminal & Career Offender Designations

Raquel Lazo, Assistant Federal Public Defender, District of Nevada

Brenda Weksler, Assistant Federal Public Defender, District of Nevada

Continued kudos to Training Branch attorney Lori Green for excellent management of the process for providing these valuable distance learning videos.

Thanks.

Bob
