Encl: (1) Acknowledgment of receipt

1. You were recommended for promotion to the grade of major by the Fiscal Year 2011 Major Selection Board.
2. Prior to the release of the promotion authority, all officers' names were compared with Government administrative and investigative records. This records check revealed potentially adverse information concerning allegations of sexually assaulting two female students.
3. After careful consideration of this information, your promotion has been withheld pending the completion of any administrative or disciplinary proceedings in your case and a determination of whether you are qualified for promotion. This action is being taken under the provisions of references (a), (b), and (c).
4. You may submit a response to the promotion withhold at this time, or you may wait until all disciplinary and administrative proceedings are completed to submit a response. The information you provide will allow the Commandant of the Marine Corps and the Secretary of the Navy to assess your case based on all the facts and circumstances, including your explanation, if any.
5. Enclosure (1) is an acknowledgment of receipt. Please return the completed acknowledgement of the scanned receipt to HQMC_JAMP_OMB@usmc.mil or fax to (703) 695-0335 or 225-0335 (DSN). Additionally, please forward any matters you desire to submit at this time within 10 days of your receipt of this letter. Any matters you wish to submit should be addressed, via
