8:45 a.m. Using §3553(a)’s Spears: Fighting for and Winning Lower Sentences

This session will focus on using 18 U.S.C. §3553(a) and recent sentencing rulings from the Supreme Court and lower courts to help attorneys advocate for and achieve below guidelines sentences.

9:40 a.m. Break

9:50 a.m. Judging at Sentencing

A federal judge will give his perspective on how federal criminal defense lawyers can be more persuasive in their sentencing advocacy now that Booker and Gall have allowed judges the discretion to consider more factors at sentencing.

10:50 a.m. Getting to Know Your Client

Just who is it that I am representing? How is her case different than the other hundred that I have represented? How do I uncover and develop the mitigating factors that will allow me to tell his story in a persuasive manner? This session will focus on developing an effective relationship with your client and demonstrate interviewing techniques which will allow you to obtain mitigating information from the client and other key figures.

11:50 a.m. Meet “Sam Bradshaw” - A Client’s Perspective on Sentencing Advocacy

12:15 p.m. Lunch - On Your Own

1:30 p.m. Brainstorming the Facts of the Case

This session will explain the elements of brainstorming using the mock case to demonstrate techniques for discussing and understanding the facts of a case in a manner which will maximize the potential of developing those facts into a persuasive sentencing theory.
