Mr. Faraj,

This is our 3rd and final attempt to collect for damages to the vehicle that you rented from Budget Rent A Car on April 16, 2010 and returned with damage.

While we understand that you are under the impression that since you don't recall have an actual accident you should not be responsible for the damages. Under the terms of the contract section 8 Damage/Loss to the car "you are responsible; and you will pay us for all loss of or damage to the car regardless of cause, or who, or what caused it". As such, we are contacting you directly for payment.

Also you might have rental coverage vehicle, you should contact your credit card merchant Amex ended on 2012 at (800) 338-1670 claims department and they would provide the primary coverage for any liability that you may have. If you file a claim with them please contact us with the claim number assigned so we can forward the proper documents to them to process their claim.

Remember that your contract with Budget 588488596 still active open for unpaid damages and we might charge the difference into the same credit card that you paid for the rental to our discretion.

Should we not receive a response from you in 14 days from the above date; this matter will be turned over to our attorneys for collection.

Enclosed please find our invoice for the damages to the rental vehicle and a credit card authorization form, to be completed and mailed back, should you wish to pay using a credit card, or if you wish to pay by check, cashiers check or money order, please remit to the above listed address.

Failure to respond to this matter will result in legal action against to you.

Sincerely,
