Re: Haifa Saffieddine v. Chase Auto Sales, Inc., Hussein Muzzanar, Nader Damouni; Case no. 10-3852GC

Dear Mr. Akouri,

Following the estimate provided by your client, I had the vehicle evaluated. The cost of repair came in under $500. Your client appears to have sought to inflate the cost of repair. I initially took his efforts as a good faith attempt to resolve the matter. I now have grave doubts about his intent and consider the entire process a charade intended to waste time. I hereby withdraw my offer to settle.

Sincerely,

Haytham Faraj
