Mr. Clark,

It was a pleasure speaking with you the other day. I spoke to Judge Duggan's case manager this morning and we do not have to submit a discovery plan prior to a status conference.

We have no objections to postponing discovery regarding the conspiracy claim and the related Monell claim until the Motion for Partial Dismissal is decided. That said, our First Set of Interrogatories and Requests for Production of Documents to the City of Dearborn Heights pertains to the incident at the Saad residence (not the conspiracy/Monell claims); accordingly, we would expect a response to these.

As far as our Second Set of Interrogatories and Requests for Production of Documents, which do pertain to the conspiracy/Monell claims, we have no objection to postponing a response as aforementioned.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions regarding the foregoing.

Cordially,

Nick

Dear Mr. Hadous:

We have not received your responses to our first set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents. The Michigan court rules require responses within twenty-eight days. Please let us know when we can expect your answers so that we can avoid the filing of a Motion with the Court. Thank you.

Very truly yours,
