EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

CASE NO. 10-cr-20458

Plaintiff,

v

HON. NANCY G. EDMUNDS

HASSAN AOUN, et al.

Defendant.

STIPULATION FOR FINDING OF EXCLUDABLE DELAY

On November 28, 2011, Defendant filed a motion to adjourn the trial date. [Doc #78] On December 15, 2011, the Court held a hearing attended by Government counsel, co-defendant Wissam Aoun and counsel for co-defendant Wissam Aoun. Defendant Hassan Aoun and his counsel did not attend and were excused by the court. The Court granted the motion to adjourn the trial date and set a new trial date of March 20, 2011. As set forth in the motion to adjourn, the delay is necessary to facilitate the pretrial preparation of the defense and prosecution of the case. Delay is also necessary because counsel for Defendant has an indelible conflict with another criminal case that is scheduled for the entire month of January 2012.

The Defendant is not confined.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A), the parties stipulate that the extended time period shall constitute excludable delay, and that the ends of justice served by this delay outweigh the best interests of the Defendant and the public to a speedy trial, due to the complex nature of the case.

HON. NANCY G. EDMUNDS

ORDER ADJOURNING TRIAL AND FINDING EXCLUDABLE DELAY

The Court has reviewed the stipulation of the parties. Now, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A), the Court finds that the period from December 21, 2011, until March 20, 2012, shall constitute excludable delay and that the ends of justice served by this delay outweigh the best interests of the Defendant and the public in a speedy trial. The Court further finds that additional time is needed by both parties for adequate preparation, and that such time is reasonable, due to the complex nature of the case.
