Re: Saad, Joseph & Zihra v Dearborn Heights
Case No.: 11-10103/Hon. Patrick J. Duggan
CMDA File No.: 100741

Dear Mr. Hadous:

As you well know, our expert, Harvey Ager,, M.D., believes that he cannot do an evaluation when third parties are present in the room or they are being recorded. We pointed this out to you when we arranged for the examinations. Your letter of October 14, 2011, suggests that you want a third party present as well as the whole examination recorded. Please let me know if you are insisting on this so that we can immediately file the appropriate Motion to compel the examination of your clients.

In addition, we have received a statement for $300 from Dr. Harvey Ager which is his charge for the late cancellation of your client's IME. As you will recall, you let us know the day before the scheduled IME that Mr. Saad would not be attending. Please make your direct payment to Dr. Ager for the late cancellation.

Very truly yours,

CUMMINGS, McCLOREY, DAVIS & ACHO, P.L.C.
