

FINDINGS OF THE BOARD OF INQUIRY

By a preponderance of the evidence, this Board of Inquiry finds that Major Carlos O. Rowe 4333/0402, USMC:

Has not demonstrated Substandard Performance of Duty by:

Failure to demonstrate acceptable qualities of leadership required of an officer of his grade.

Failure to properly discharge the duties expected of an officer of his grade and experience.

Has not committed acts of Misconduct as evidenced by:

_____ The commission of a military or civilian offense that, if prosecuted under the UCMJ, could be punished by confinement of 6 months or more, or if prosecuted under the UCMJ, would require specific intent for conviction. Specifically:

Violations of Article 133, UCMJ.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE BOARD OF INQUIRY

_____ By majority vote, the Board of Inquiry recommends that Major Carlos O. Rowe, 4333/0402, USMC be separated from the naval service for the reason(s) listed above. The Board of Inquiry further recommends that Major Carlos O. Rowe's service be characterized as:

_____ Honorable

_____ General (Under Honorable Conditions)

_____ Other Than Honorable

By majority vote, the Board of Inquiry finds that none of the reasons listed above warrant Major Carlos O. Rowe's separation from the naval service and the case is, therefore, closed.

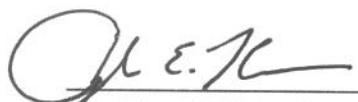

(SEE ENCLOSURE (5) OF SECNAVINST 1920.6C FOR GUIDANCE ON CHARACTERIZATION OF SERVICE RECOMMENDATION)
