DECLARATION OF LIEUTENANT COLONEL SEAN M. SULLIVAN,
UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS RESERVE

DECLARANT, states as follows, to wit:

1. I am Lieutenant Colonel Sean M. Sullivan, USMCR, presently serving as the Assistant Chief of Staff ("AC/S"), Staff Judge Advocate ("SJA"), Marine Corps Recruit Depot ("MCRD") and Western Recruiting Region ("WRR"), located in San Diego, California.
2. As the SJA, I exercise staff cognizance over the following legal sections: Administrative Support; Civil Law; Military Justice; legal Assistance; and Defense. MCRD SD/Western Recruiting Region ("WRR") Organization and Function Manual, ¶ 8001.1 and MCRD SD/WRR Standard Operating Procedures for Legal Matters, ¶ 1005 (DepO P5800.13B).
3. MCRD San Diego is a military installation under the military command and management control of the Commandant of the Marine Corps. Marine Corps Manual w/ CH 1-3, ¶ 6(a).
4. In July 2010, I assumed my official duties as the SJA at MCRD and WRR.

5. As the AC/S, SJA at MCRD San Diego, I am responsible for the security of Building 12 (“Law Center”) onboard MCRD SD. MCRD SD/WRR Crime Prevention Program Order (DepO 1600.1C).
6. The first deck of the Law Center houses the following sections: Administrative Support; Civil Law; Military Justice; legal Assistance; and Defense. The second deck of the Law Center houses a courtroom which has been under construction for the past year and should be completed on or before 1 November 2010.
7. Every section maintains either confidential Naval Criminal Investigative Service (“NCIS”) Reports of Investigation (“ROI”), prosecution case files, confidential administrative investigation files, confidential and privileged defense investigatory files involving ongoing criminal cases (General and Special Courts-Martial), and other privileged and personal information protected by the Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. § 552A) and other federal statutes applicable to ensuring the safeguarding of official documentation and personal information obtained and maintained within an official system of records.
8. As the SJA, I have to ensure that my subordinate attorneys and office personnel working within the Law Center take appropriate action to safeguard official and confidential files and ensure that only authorized personnel have access to the Law Center.
9. In July 2010, after assuming my duties as the SJA, I was informed by NCIS personnel and an Assistant U.S. Attorney from the San Diego U.S. Attorney’s Office, that Ms. Carolyn Martin was the subject of an ongoing federal criminal investigation related to allegations that she had fraudulently misrepresented her credentialing authority in order to gain access to the NCIS field office at Marine Corps Air Station (“MCAS”) Miramar, California. Furthermore, I was informed that she was also under investigation for alleged witness tampering and attempted obstruction of justice involving improper communications she made to civilian witnesses who were scheduled to testify at a court-martial that was held at MCRD San Diego, in May 2010.
10. In mid August 2010, the Chief of Staff, MCRD San Diego, who was at the time, acting as the Commanding General, MCRD San Diego<sup>1</sup> (herein referred to “Acting Commanding General”) was briefed by NCIS personnel concerning Ms. Martin’s ongoing federal criminal investigation as discussed above.
11. Based upon the information received from the federal criminal investigative authorities relating to Ms. Martin’s alleged witness tampering and attempted obstruction of justice, and given the confidential investigatory files maintained at the Law Center, the Acting Commanding General decided to limit Ms. Martin’s access to the Law Center until the conclusion of the criminal investigations.
12. Specifically, the Acting Commanding General determined that Ms. Martin shall be debarred from the Law Center unless I approve otherwise. Ms. Martin is not debarred from entire MCRD installation, but only the building 12 Law Center with the exceptions noted in Paragraph 13.

13. I have never, nor do I intend on taking any action to prevent Ms. Martin from accessing any courtroom located on the 2nd deck of the Law Center should she be called to testify as a witness by a party in any judicial proceeding. Also, Ms. Martin will not be prevented from accessing any courtroom at the Law Center for any judicial proceeding, should defense counsel request her presence and the military judge approves said request.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dear Ms. Martin:

I have determined you attempted to interfere, or left the distinct impression of an attempt to interfere, with a witness's participation in the pending court-martial of United States v. Corporal J. W. Sims. Given your conduct, and the effect that your presence can have on this and other witnesses, I consider your presence aboard this Air Station to be detrimental to the good order and discipline required aboard this installation.

As a result thereof, upon receipt of this letter, you are hereby ORDERED not to return to or reenter Marine Corps Air Station, Beaufort, South Carolina, to include the Laurel Bay Housing Area, unless this order is withdrawn by me or my successors in writing.

You are hereby given NOTICE that any reentry or attempt to reenter the Marine Corps Air Station, Beaufort, South Carolina, or the Laurel Bay Housing Area, will constitute a violation of the Title 18, United States Code, Section 1382, which is quoted in its entirety for your information.

TITLE 18 U.S. Code Section 1382 - Entering Military, Naval, or Coast Guard property:

Whoever, within the jurisdiction of the United States, goes upon any military, Naval, or Coast Guard reservation, post, fort, arsenal, yard, station, or installation, for any purpose prohibited by law or lawful regulation: or

*Whoever, reenters or is found within any such reservation, post, fort, arsenal, yard, station or installation, after having been removed therefrom or ordered not to reenter by any officer or person in command or charge thereof shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than six months, or both. (As amended Sept. 13, 1994, Pub.L. 103-322, Title XXXIII, Section 330016(1)(G), 108 Stat. 2147.) *

You are further informed that should you reenter or be found within the limits of Marine Corps Air Station, Beaufort, South Carolina, or the Laurel Bay Housing Area, in violation of this order, you will be subject to apprehension and detention by the military for prompt delivery to Federal Marshals or other appropriate civil authorities.

11. Near the end of the interview, Ms. SIMMONS provided that she was previously contacted and questioned by a female private investigator regarding this investigation. RA inquired if the investigator was Carolyn MARTIN and Ms. SIMMONS confirmed that it was. Ms. SIMMONS stated she was not comfortable speaking with Ms. MARTIN because she was an independent investigator, not from an official investigating agency. According to Ms. SIMMONS, Ms. MARTIN cautioned her about speaking to any "government agencies" regarding this investigation. Ms. SIMMONS stated Ms. MARTIN told her the government agency would try to "coerce or bully her around" and that she should not trust them. Ms. SIMMONS added that Ms. MARTIN said, "I can't tell you not to talk to them, but it would be in your best interest not to".

12. Ms. SIMMONS could provide no additional information. She was provided with RA's contact information and encouraged to contact RA if she recalled or came upon any information she believed would assist the investigation.

EXHIBIT D

Ms. Lindsay Simmons, a civilian, was called as a witness by the prosecution, was sworn, and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

Questions by the trial counsel:

Q Are you on a cellular phone, Ms. Simmons?

A Yes, sir.

Q Are you in a place where you have uninterrupted service and you are not going to be driving or in danger or anything?

A Yes, sir.

Q Yes, sir, you are in a quiet place where you're not going to be in danger?

A Yes.

Q Is there anybody else in the room with you?

A No, sir.

Q Are you going to be referring to any notes?

A No, sir.

Q Ms. Simmons, I know that -- you are on a phone -- on speakerphone in the courtroom, so I can just ask you to speak up because the court reporter has to take down your words and then I will just ask you a few questions. All right?

Q

All right. Ms. Simmons, I am going to turn your attention now to more recent events. Have you talked to a Ms. Carolyn Martin recently?

A

Yes, in June.

Q

And could you please relay that conversation to the court please?

A

She called me and I didn't know why she was calling because I didn't know about any of this. And -- so I was kind of afraid at first because I thought I had done something wrong because all she said was that she was a private investigator and she needed to ask me some questions. And then after a couple of minutes she told me -- I mean, I think she realized that I was confused and didn't know what was going on, so she told me about Josh's situation and she just asked me a lot of questions about Josh and a lot of questions about how I felt for him and things like that. And then towards the end she asked if anyone else had talked to me about it and, again, I said, No, I didn't know anything about it but no one had called me. And she told me that she couldn't tell me not to talk to NCIS and there is some other agency that I can't, for the life of me, remember what it was she said.

Q Was it CID?

A I don't remember. It was an acronym of some sort, but I don't remember what it was. And she told me she couldn't tell me not to talk to them, but in her experience the people that she had talked to before, those people felt -- and this isn't verbatim -- but something about how they felt pressured into answering questions and, kind of, led into questions and that I didn't have to talk to them if I didn't want to and just on and on about how other people that she talked to had a really negative experience with NCIS and fill in the blank.

Q What kind of impression did you get from what she said?

A Honestly, it just made me think that it reflected poorly on her because I felt -- I mean, after she said that, it gave me a really negative impression of NCIS and I thought that was kind of odd because I met people before who work there and they were always really nice. So I thought it was kind of odd and I thought it was kind of poor on her part to, kind of, I don't know, demean anyone really at all really. And then I forget his name, but a gentleman from NCIS called me and he was so nice to me that I told him that because I thought it was really shocking that it had gone so well and she kind of told me that it wouldn't.

Q Was that gentleman Michael Pierce?

A I believe so. I didn't write down his name.

Q And you've talked to me before, Captain Evans, about this case?

A Yes, sir.

Q Has either Special Agent Michael Pierce or myself, Captain Evans, treated you unfairly or done any of the things that Carolyn Martin said that we would do?

A No, sir.

TC: I have no further questions at this time, sir.
