DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY

NAVY RECRUITING DISTRICT, RICHMOND 3410 WEST BROAD STREET RICHMOND, VA 23230-5004

September 25, 2001

Mr. and Mrs. Burden 2726 Cardinal Dr. Costa Mesa, CA 92626

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Burden,

On behalf of the Secretary of the Navy and the Chief of Naval Operations, I welcome you to our "Navy Family." I am sure you are very proud of the recent enlistment of your son, Thomas, in the United States Navy. With enlistment, many superb opportunities for experience and education will be available in the next few years.

Even though Thomas is likely to begin his time in the Navy as a member of the Delayed Entry Program (DEP), Thomas will immediately begin activities which will provide an opportunity to learn more about the Navy's programs and prepare for Recruit Training. Additionally, through his conversations, his friends and classmates may become interested in the Navy's fantastic training opportunities and good paying jobs and ask if they might get the same chance, too. Thomas can benefit from this natural curiosity by bringing to his recruiter's attention these interested individuals. If his friends enlist in the Navy, your son may be advanced to pay grade E-2 or E-3 which is a monetary benefit per month initially, and a substantial amount over the course of his enlistment. Thomas should contact his recruiter for more detailed information on this subject. This early advancement will also move Thomas up the promotion ladder, and becoming eligible nine months earlier for each successive pay grade.

While Thomas awaits his active duty date, I highly encourage you and your son to become more familiar with the Navy by attending the local recruiting station's DEP information sessions (DEP meetings).

Sincerely

Again, welcome to the "Navy Family."

P. J. RUSSO

Commander, U.S. Navy Commanding Officer
