

AFFIDAVIT

AFFIANT, being first duly sworn, deposes and says of his/her own personal knowledge:

My information concerning Capt Wacker's trial is from the news release from the MCRD daily media e-mails as well as news releases from the San Diego Channel 10 news. I watched the interview that the news caster did with Capt Wacker and was shocked and offended that they would ask him any questions concerning his upcoming trial, also that they would interview his neighbors to find out what kind of person he is. My impression of Capt Wacker before I heard anything about his court-martial, was that he is an upstanding Marine Officer who seemed to have no issues at all. His mannerisms are not those of someone who would act the way that it was implied that he did. When I heard about his court-martial and what it was for I was in disbelief since the Marine Officer I know did not seem like the kind of person who could do something like that. I personally DO NOT believe a word of anything that is being said negatively about Capt Wacker. I think he is being slandered and discredited for an act that he didn't do. Even after the media releases I still see Capt Wacker as an Honorable man and Marine and one I would trust to watch my back in combat, or to be able to lead me effectively in any type of situation that came up.
