Re: Cease and Desist notice; defamation, breach of contract, and tortious interference with business interests of 3D Global Solutions

Dear Mr. Farrell:

It has come to our attention that you have intentionally committed several offenses calculated to harm 3D Global Solutions Inc. and Mr. Michael Dodd's business interests, business relationships and reputation. Our firm has, therefore, been retained by 3D Global Solutions to seek injunctive relief and to take legal actions against you for several causes of action including: Business Defamation; Breach of Contract; Interference with a Business Interest; Interference with an Economic Expectation; Tortious Interference with a Contract; and Tortious Interference with Advantageous Business Relationship or Expectancy.

We have in our possession several emails that unequivocally prove the offenses I have alleged here against you. I am hereby providing you notice to IMMEDIATELY cease and desist from making any statements whether orally or in writing; or taking any actions that unlawfully or unfairly harm 3D Global Solutions' Inc. or Mr. Michael Dodd's reputation or business interests. Failure to abide by this warning will force us to undertake legal actions against to seek equitable and legal relief. As I am sure you are aware litigation is costly and time consuming. I am, therefore, providing you an opportunity to avoid a costly law suit against you that I am certain we will prevail in. If we are forced to legal action, in addition to equitable and legal remedies, I will seek attorney's fees and punitive damages.

If you believe you are entitled to some right or benefit from 3D Global Solutions Inc., I invite you to correspond directly with 3D Global Solutions at their business address or with our firm at the address below.

Sincerely,

Haytham Faraj, Esq
